New and exciting activities guests can look forward to this year

May 2018, Philippines –Locals and tourists can now look forward to more island adventures at the 5-star resort. Check out what awesome adventures await at the luxury of sanctuary at The Bellevue Resort – Bohol.

Luxury View Deck

Great news for all party throwers out there—the must-have destination venue is now open! The newly launched Luxury View Deck is the best place to hold intimate gatherings because not only do guests get a great private space to enjoy the company of their loved ones, but also, it has the perfect view of both the island and the heavens—front row seats to watch the sunset. Talk about having the best event backdrop ever! Host the perfect karaoke night, sunset cocktail, romantic dinner, and other family gatherings at the Luxury View Deck for as low as Php1,499 per person.

Mangroves Kayak Eco Tour

The Mangroves Kayak Eco Tour is a new recreational and educational activity offered at the resort. Adventurers start their journey with a speedboat ride from the resort to the mangroves. The scenic route will give guests a picturesque view of neighboring islands until they reach the mangroves, where they will transfer to a kayak. Aboard the kayak, they get to row into majestic waters that will tour them further into an enchanting tunnel of trees. A friendly tour guide will accompany them to help them discover and understand more about the ecology of the mangroves. This wonderful adventure is available at Php500 nett per person, with a minimum of 2 persons and a maximum of 6.

Motorized Sailboat

Guests can now enjoy the fresh air and the awe-inspiring view as they take a breezy ride on the motorized sailboats to Virgin Island and Napaling Point. Sail away on a two to three-hour escapade for only Php2,500. Snorkeling gears are available for rent at Php200 per set for the venturesome wanderers who want to go on an underwater adventure.
